Numbers add up for Owls' Ziska

The West Lawn second baseman continues to impress, whether it's on the baseball diamond, the football field, the soccer field or the classroom.

By Darryl Grumling
Reading Eagle

Ricky Ziska has always been a numbers guy.

The 720 he put up on the mathematics portion of the SAT is evidence of that.

Then, again, Ziska has to be a math whiz to keep track of his own uniform numbers.

No. 1 is for football, where he was an All-Berks kicker for Wilson.

No. 6 is for soccer, where he was also an All-Berks performer and helped the Bulldogs reach the District 3-AAA title game, and for baseball, where he hit .393 and scored a team-high 21 runs for Wilson and was an all-division selection.

And No. 4 is for West Lawn's Legion team, where Ziska has been sizzling so far this season.

Ziska, a second baseman who hits leadoff, has been a catalyst for the Owls (4-0 Western Division, 10-0), who are off to one of the best starts in the 49-year history of the franchise.

The 5-7, 155-pounder is hitting .395 with 10 runs and has posted a 1-0 record on the mound with one save and a 1.57 ERA in 11 innings.

"I need to get on base and get things going," Ziska said. "I try to be a spark plug."

"He makes you smile every time he's on the field," West Lawn coach Tony Matz III said. "He knows his baseball. Few kids know the game like he does. He's a guy you want around when it's time to compete."

Ziska will compete on the gridiron in the fall, where he will kick for Lafayette College. But he's not exactly slacking off this summer.

Last Saturday, he graduated from Wilson with a class rank of 20 out of 352 and a 95.7 average.

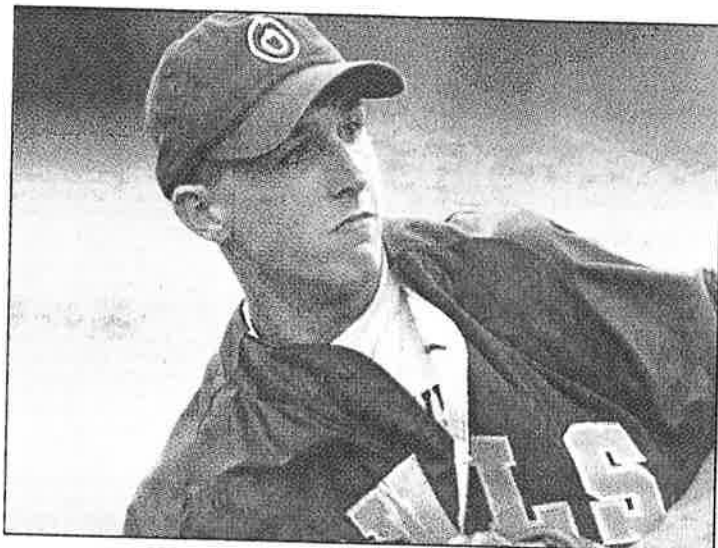

Sunday afternoon, he headed to Manheim to compete in the Tri-County All-Star Football Classic.

Sunday night, he went 4-for-4 in West Lawn's 14-2 victory over Conrad Weiser.

Monday, he was 2-for-3 in a 19-0 rout of Wyomissing.

Tuesday, Ziska again did double duty. He played on Berks County's all-star team in the Carpenter Cup and singled in his first appearance at Veterans Stadium.

Later that night, he threw eight strong innings to help the

Reading Eagle: Diane Staskowski

"I guess you could say I'm always busy with something. I'm not sitting at home much at all."

West Lawn second baseman Ricky Ziska

Owls beat Schuylkill Valley 8-2.

Wednesday, Ziska got a chance to rest — if you can call it that — working eight hours for the borough of Sinking Spring and heading to Legion practice.

Thursday, he collected two hits in the first inning, scored a run and drove in two before the rains came and washed out West Lawn's game against Muhlenberg.

Friday, he headed to Lafayette for orientation.

"I guess you could say I'm always busy with something," Ziska said. "I'm not sitting at home much at all."

Off the playing field, Ziska is rarely idle, either. He was recently chosen as Berks County's top business student in the Reading Eagle Company's Berks' Best scholarship project.

If that isn't enough, he also delivers the newspaper part-time.

And lately, the little guy who stood just 4-10 as a freshman, has delivered in a big way for the Owls.

"He's a great guy to have in the leadoff hole," Matz said. "He can hit with any count, take pitches or hit the first pitch if he has to. And, defensively, he picks up the ball as well as any second baseman I've had. He does any number of things for us."

Too numerous to count.

■ West Lawn 5, Reading 0: At Owls Field, Ricky Ziska went 2-for-4, stole three bases and scored three runs to lead the Owls to a Western Division victory over the White Sox.

Matt Miller went 2-for-4 with an RBI and Joe Blackburn was 2-for-3 for the Owls.

■ West Lawn 11, Fleetwood 1: At Fleetwood, Joe Blackburn hit a three-run homer in a five-run fifth inning to help the Owls (6-0 Western Division, 12-0) down the Tigers (3-3 Eastern Division, 3-4) in an interdivision game for their second win of the day.

Ryan Brobst allowed only a first-inning run in seven innings to earn the win.

Blackburn went 2-for-4 with four RBIs, Ben Reifsnnyder went 3-for-5 with two RBIs and Andrew Ernesto went 2-for-3 for the Owls. For Fleetwood, Matt Cicale went 3-for-4 and Josh Santos went 2-for-4.

2005 state Legion tourney to be played at Owls Field

From our news staff

The West Lawn Owls have been flying high this Berks Legion season, which they opened with 18 straight victories before their first loss.

The Owls also have plenty to hoot about as far as the future.

West Lawn has been awarded the opportunity to host the 2005 Pennsylvania American Legion State Baseball Tournament.

It will mark the second time the state tournament will be held at Owls Field, the site of the 1998 state tourney.

"We're very proud of all the work our volunteers do," said Owls Sports Club president Jay Vaughan. "This is a great chance to showcase our field and organization to people around the state.

"We're definitely looking forward to it, and having a chance to be a good representative of the Berks County League."

West Lawn won the 1962 state tournament at Coplay and also qualified for the state tourney in 1992 (at Boyertown) and 1999 (at St. Mary's) in addition to being the tourney host in 1998.

Also, the 2004 Berks Legion League Tournament and 2004 Junior Legion Eastern Regional Tournament both will be played at Owls Field.

■ Holiday happenings: Boyertown will travel to Binghamton, N.Y., July 1-6 for the prestigious World Youth Classic. # West Lawn clinches Western crown

A five-run fourth inning puts away Gregg Post as the Owls win their first division title in three years.

From our news staff

Ben Reifsnnyder threw a complete game and Drew Barnett delivered a two-run single in a decisive five-run fourth as West Lawn clinched the Berks Legion League's Western Division crown by defeating Gregg Post 12-1 Monday night at Owls Field.

Drew Barnett
West Lawn

It was the fifth Western Division title since 1996 and first since 2000 for the Owls (16-3 West, 25-5 overall).

West Lawn built upon a 2-1 lead in the fourth, when James Geosits had an RBI single and later scored on a passed ball and Reifsnnyder scored Barnett with a sacrifice fly.

Reifsnnyder (4-2), a lefty, scattered 12 hits, struck out six and walked three.

Leadoff man Rick Ziska and Geosits each had two hits and two runs and Barnett and Matt Bainbridge each had two hits and two RBIs for the Owls.

Matt Whiteley and Craig Lavigna each went 2-for-4 for the Keys (12-7, 12-7), whose lone run came in the third on Tyler Pennepacker's sacrifice fly.

A's surprise West Lawn

Muhlenberg ties Fleetwood and Kutztown for the final berth, forcing two extra playoff games.

From our news staff

Reliever Ryan Figard escaped a bases-loaded situation in the ninth inning as Muhlenberg held on for a 5-2 Berks Legion League Western Division victory over West Lawn Saturday night at Gochnauer Field that created a three-way tie for the final playoff spot.

The A's (10-12 Western Division, 12-15 overall) wound up tying Eastern Division teams Fleetwood (10-12, 10-13) and Kutztown (10-12, 10-13) for the eighth position, forcing two playoff games for the final berth.

Muhlenberg will play Fleetwood tonight at 7 at Shillington, the winner facing Kutztown — which drew a bye on tiebreaking criteria — Monday, site and time to be determined, for the eighth seed.

The league's eight-team, double-elimination postseason tournament begins Thursday at the sites of the higher seeds.

The A's got an RBI single in the first inning from Rick Stewart, an RBI single in the fifth from Adam Reckley, an RBI single in the sixth from Matt Hracho and a two-run triple from Dru Darkis in the eighth to build a 5-0 lead.

Stewart took a six-hit shutout into the ninth before the Owls (18-4, 28-7) got a two-out, two-run RBI single from Rick Ziska and loaded the bases. But Hracho struck out Andy Ernesto to end it.

Hracho went 3-for-4 for Muhlenberg. Matt Miller was 2-for-4 for West Lawn, which will be the third seed and will open against sixth seed Hamburg.

Early struggle, but Owls finish with big victory

Ryan Brobst is a big relief and starter Ben Reifsnnyder gets a big hit in West Lawn's opening round win over Hamburg.

By Don Stewart
Reading Eagle

After watching lefty Ben Reifsnnyder lumber through three and a third against Hamburg, West Lawn coach Tony Matz III decided he'd seen enough.

He admitted it was a tough call to yank his starter so early into the first game of an eight-team, double-elimination tournament. But the 10 hits and two walks Reifsnnyder allowed were just too many, too soon.

Reifsnnyder made the move a little tougher on Matz, though, when he told his coach he wasn't coming out. The senior might have been playing his last game at Owls Field.

"After four years," he said, "I didn't wanna give up the ball." Reifsnnyder eventually handed the ball to Matz, then jogged out to left to give way to Ryan Brobst. Though Matz had taken away his arm, Reifsnnyder managed to give Brobst a hand at the plate the following inning.

With two out, one on and the Owl up by one, he bashed a fastball to the right-field fence, where it eventually was picked up, bobbled and thrown to the plate far too late to catch Reifsnnyder, who hit the first in-the-park homer of his Berks Legion career.

West Lawn was never threatened after that en route to a 12-4 first-round win against Hamburg Thursday night at Owls Field. The Owls travel to Shillington for a winners bracket semifinal at 7 tonight. Hamburg plays host to Birdsboro in an elimination game, same time.

"It was a big lift," Matz said of Reifsnnyder's homer. "Not only for us, but for Ben."

Brobst (10-1) also gave West

Reading Eagle: Diane Staskowski
West Lawn's Ben Reifsnnyder belts a fifth-inning home run during Thursday's playoff win over Hamburg.

Lawn (30-8) a lift with his solid relief work. He kept the Reds scoreless for the final 5 $\frac{2}{3}$  innings, allowing six hits, two walks and hitting a batter. He struck out three and kept Matz from going deeper into his game.

The Reds (14-11) trickled 16 hits, but failed to capitalize most of the night. But their Achilles' heel was their fielding.

Hamburg's five errors included a drop of a routine fly that scored a run to tie it 4-4, and two errors in the eighth that enabled the Owls score five runs to seal it.

The miscues spoiled a spirited effort by starter Kyle Breidenstine (3-3), who threw 157 pitches to notch the complete game.

"You just can't do that in the playoffs," Reds coach Jeff Seidel said of the poor fielding. "We started one senior, though. We started out 2-7 and we ended up 12-3. It's important that we get one playoff win with a young team."

Savage, Red Sox slam West Lawn

Steve Savage comes up with three hits and four RBIs in Shillington's lopsided win over West Lawn.

By Darryl Grumling
Reading Eagle

The thunderstorm that ripped through Shillington's Rulon Griffith Field Friday night was pretty savage. Then again, so was the effort from the Red Sox's lineup — led by Steve Savage.

Savage continued his hot Berks Legion League Tournament tear, stroking three hits and driving in four runs — including the game-ending RBI single that gave Shillington a 13-1 winners bracket semifinal win over West Lawn halted in the bottom of the seventh by the 12-run rule.

Second seed Shillington (26-5) advances to tonight's winners bracket final, set for Bear Stadium at 7, against the winner of this morning's Boyertown-Exeter game. Third seed West Lawn (30-9) meets the winner of this morning's Fleetwood-Gregg Post game in an elimination contest at noon at Bear Stadium.

"The whole team's turned it up a notch lately," said Savage, who had a homer and four RBIs in a 14-1 first-round win over Birdsboro.

Shillington jumped on top early, scoring three runs in the first when Savage laced a two-run double to right-center and scored when winning pitcher Zach Lutz reached on an error.

"I'll tell you what," Shillington coach Steve Murray said. "Steve's been hitting the ball like that all year. He's been on a roll, and he's fun to watch up there."

Then the Red Sox tacked on four more runs — all unearned — in the second, when West Lawn committed two errors.

Jason Zeigler had an RBI single, Lutz had an RBI double and Ryan Gerber blooped a two-run single down the right-field line to make it 7-0.

West Lawn finally got on the board on Andy Ernesto's fifth-inning RBI single, and had a runner on first with one out in the top of the sixth when the game was halted by lightning.

The lightning was followed by a heavy downpour for approximately a half-hour, resulting in a two-hour rain delay.

Shillington's Rob Beckey wound up relieving Lutz, and got Ben Reifsnnyder to ground hard into a force that wound up being a double play when Reifsnnyder tried to take second after an errant pivot throw and was nailed in a rundown.

"We were a little fortunate to get that double play," Murray said. "It (the pitching change) wound up working out for us."

Rick Ziska, who had retired 10 in a row before the delay, got the first out before the Red Sox struck for three more runs. Aaron Bertoldi scored on Zeigler's fielder's choice grounder and Savage and Lutz each singled in runs to make it 10-1.

In the seventh, Jake Grauel's two-run single set the stage for Savage, who capped his night by roping a single to left-center.

Bertoldi went 3-for-4 and Grauel and Zeigler scored three runs in a 15-hit attack for the Red Sox. Lutz (6-1) scattered seven hits and struck out two.

Leadoff man Ziska went 3-for-3 and reached base all four times for the Owls.

Confident Keys eliminate Owls

Gregg Post gets strong pitching from Edwin Tavarez and a timely hit from Wander Ramirez to defeat West Lawn.

By Darryl Grumling
Reading Eagle

Edwin Tavarez and Wander Ramirez aren't related, but the Gregg Post teammates consider themselves brothers on the baseball diamond.

Each came to Reading via the Dominican Republic over the past two years, and both are skillful middle infielders for the Keys.

Saturday afternoon at Boyertown's Bear Stadium, Tavarez and Ramirez teamed up to help Gregg Post defeat West Lawn 5-1 in a Berks Legion League playoff tournament elimination game.

Tavarez, normally the shortstop, took the mound and threw a complete game. Ramirez went 4-for-5 and delivered the go-ahead, two-run double in a five-run eighth as the fourth-seeded Keys (16-9) avenged two regular season losses to the third-seeded Owls (30-10).

After going 14 years without a playoff victory, Gregg Post — which defeated Fleetwood 9-1 earlier Saturday at George Field in the conclusion of Friday's suspended game — notched two of them in a matter of hours.

"The curse is over," joked veteran Keys coach Charlie Flannery.

Against Owls lefty Marc Hampson, though, the Keys seemed snake bitten most of the first seven innings.

They saw a hit-and-run attempt turn into an inning-ending double-play lineout in the third, then strung together three straight hits in the fourth but couldn't get a runner to second. Two runners got picked off and the other got nailed trying to stretch a single into a double. And in the seventh, Gregg Post loaded the bases with one out and still couldn't push a run across.

West Lawn wasn't having much luck either. The Owls had a runner thrown out at the plate in the fifth and stranded runners on second and third with one out in the seventh.

"You just had that feeling that whoever scored first was going to have a good opportunity to open the floodgates," Owls coach Tony Matz III said.

That wound up being the Keys in the eighth, which started when Tim Swavely and Tyler Pennepacker hit back-to-back, one-out singles. Ramirez then smoked a drive to deep left-center that barely glanced off the top of center fielder Andy Ernesto's glove to finally break the scoreless deadlock.

Ramirez scored on a two-out throwing error when Kris Fana reached on a third strike in the dirt, and Craig Lavigna made West Lawn pay for the mistake by launching a two-run homer off the light pole beyond the left-field fence.

Swavely and Pennepacker each went 3-for-5 and Lavigna was 2-for-3 in a 14-hit attack for the Keys, who have won 10-of-13 since a 6-6 start.

"Earlier in the season we didn't play hard," said Tavarez (4-0), who struck out seven and scattered nine hits. "But we regrouped and now we're more like a family."

Jensil Langumas went 3-for-4 and scored the lone run for West Lawn on Matt Miller's eighth-inning single.

"Beating Fleetwood gave them confidence," Flannery said. "It made believers out of them, and they also felt they owed West Lawn something. They really wanted to win this one."

Legion season a late letdown for Berks' best

The Berks Legion season had its share of great moments, especially from champion Boyertown. But the postseason proved disappointing to league powers.

By Darryl Grumling
Reading Eagle

It was a summer that began with great promise for the Berks Legion League, but one that ended all too soon for the league's powers. For the first time in 13 years, only one team — champion Boyertown — advanced to the Region 2 Tournament.

And despite taking a gaudy 48-4 record into the state tournament, the Bears failed to win a state title or play their way into national regionals for the seventh straight year.

Here's a look back at the Berks Legion season, by the numbers:

1: Player on Boyertown's 18-man roster not eligible to return next year: 19-year-old shortstop Jon Kalejta.

2: Berks players to advance to the Pennsylvania East-West all-star game: Boyertown's duo of Ryan Arcadia and Kurt Houck. Arcadia went 2-for-2 with four stolen bases and was named game MVP, and Houck picked up the win in relief.

2: Three-homer games by Shillington's Steve Savage, who accomplished the feat in a 13-4 victory over Hamburg and in a 13-7 victory over Hamilton, N.J.

3: Triples hit by Boyertown's

Matt Cotellese in a 15-3 victory over West Lawn. Cotellese went 4-for-5 with four runs and six RBIs.

5: Times Boyertown and Shillington played each other this season, with the Bears winning four of the games. The Bears and Red Sox have met 11 times over the past two seasons — and 44 times over the past 11 years. Five of those meetings have been for the Berks championship.

8: RBIs by Birdsboro's Jay Richter in a 19-11 Berks playoff victory over Hamburg. Richter went 5-for-6 with three homers and four runs scored.

9: RBIs by Exeter's Tommy Rivas in a 17-1 rout of Conrad Weiser. Rivas also homered three times, scored five runs and picked up the win.

Shillington's Zach Lutz also drove in nine runs in a 22-2 win over Exeter. Lutz was 3-for-3 with a grand slam and four runs.

12: Franchise-record amount of victories for Fleetwood, which defeated Muhlenberg and Kutztown in a special playoff to earn its first trip to the Berks playoffs.

14: Years Gregg Post went between playoff victories before a 9-1 Berks tournament elimination win over Fleetwood. The Keys then eliminated West Lawn and were within three

26: Number of Berks championships for Boyertown after this year's 4-3 title-game victory over Shillington at Bear Stadium. The Red Sox tied it at 3-3 with two runs in the top of the eighth, but Boyertown's Adam Tsakonas drew a walk, stole second and scored the go-ahead run on two passed balls. Reliever Kurt Houck retired all five batters he faced, including the final four by strikeout.

44-20: Interdivision record of Eastern Division teams against the Western Division teams.

.509: Overall batting average of West Lawn catcher Joe Blackburn (59-for-116), who also had 15 doubles, seven triples and four homers for an .845 slugging percentage.

.722: Aggregate all-time winning percentage for Berks teams in the Region 2 Tournament (a 171-66 record), led by Boyertown's .828 (82-17).

Berks Legion all-star team

The 2003 All-Berks Legion team, as selected by the league coaches:

Ryan Arcadia, Boyertown

Arcadia, a speedy 17-year-old third baseman, was a spark at the plate and on the bases for the Bears. He hit .461, scored 33 runs and stole 19 bases while also solidifying the infield.

Ty Brewer, Birdsboro

The 19-year-old first baseman — last year's league MVP — had three homers, 11 doubles and three triples while driving in a team-high 27 RBIs and scoring a team-high 28 runs for the Orioles.

Joe Blackburn, West Lawn

Penn State-bound Blackburn, an 18-year-old catcher, hit .554 and slugged .969 for the Owls. He had four homers, 11 doubles, two triples, 35 runs and 35 RBIs.

Matt Cotellese, Boyertown

The 17-year-old Cotellese went on several tears this summer, hitting .494 with six homers, four triples, seven doubles and 47 RBIs. He also scored 35 runs, stole 19 bases, slugged .922 and displayed a strong arm in right field.

Brian Ernst, Boyertown

Ernst, an 18-year-old switch-hitter, batted .452 with three homers, nine doubles, 17 stolen bases, 35 runs and 34 RBIs out of the cleanup hole for the Bears. In the Region 2 Tournament, the Penn State-bound center fielder hit .444 with eight RBIs and nine runs to lead the Bears to their record 16th state regional title.

Kris Fana, Gregg Post

Fana, a 17-year-old center fielder, hit .423 with nine doubles and 20 RBIs for the Keys, who earned their first playoff victory in 14 seasons. His RBI single in the bottom of the 11th was the game-winner in a 5-4 victory over Oley.

Ryan Gerber, Shillington

Gerber, an 18-year-old right-hander, went 4-1 with one save, 69 strikeouts and 1.34 ERA in 40 innings in his fourth and final season for the Red Sox. He also hit .333.

Jon Kalejta, Boyertown

Kalejta, the Bears' lone final-year player, had a stellar defensive season at shortstop. He also hit .407 with seven doubles, 12 stolen bases and 34 runs to help the Bears claim their 26th Berks title.

Zach Lutz, Shillington

The 17-year-old Lutz was a force at the plate, on the mound and at third base for the Red Sox. He hit .471 with five homers, 11 doubles, 25 runs and 41 RBIs, driving in nine runs in a victory over Exeter. The right-hander also was 5-1 with a 0.20 ERA over 41 innings.

Eric Miksitz, Oley

Miksitz, a lefty-swinging outfielder, hit .383 with five homers, eight doubles and 21 runs for the Lynx. The final-year player also was 1-3 with two saves and 3.66 ERA over a team-high 492/3 innings.

Tyler Pennepacker, Gregg Post

Pennepacker, the Keys' 18-year-old ace righty, posted a 6-2 record with 71 strikeouts over 62 innings. He struck out seven in six innings of two-hit ball in a 9-1 victory over Fleetwood that snapped Gregg Post's 12-game, 14-year playoff victory drought. Pennepacker also hit .329 with two homers and 20 RBIs.

Steve Savage, Shillington

Savage batted .481 with six homers and 45 RBIs for the Red Sox. The 18-year-old, switch-hitting right fielder had four triples and 10 doubles for a .937 slugging percentage and scored 36 runs. He had two three-homer games.

Aaron Warchal, Exeter

Warchal, a final-year player, batted .451 with two homers, a team-high 28 RBIs and 25 runs and was also a strong defensive presence at shortstop for the Blue Jays. In a 13-3 victory over playoff qualifier Fleetwood, he went 4-for-6 with five RBIs.

Jason Zeigler, Shillington

The versatile Zeigler hit .420 with two homers, 25 RBIs and 40 runs for the Red Sox. Defensively, the 18-year-old played several positions, most notably second base. The right-hander also posted a 5-0 record with a 2.23 ERA and 46 strikeouts in 32 2/3 innings, including a 15-strikeout game against Gregg Post.

Omission

West Lawn's Rick Ziska was omitted from the 2003 All-Berks Legion team, selected by the league coaches, in Wednesday's edition of the Reading Eagle:

Rick Ziska, West Lawn

A 17-year-old leadoff hitter and second baseman, Ziska batted .429, stole eight bases and scored 27 runs for the Owls. He also pitched in with a 4-0 record and one save over 31 innings.
