

Mike Schaeffer picks junior college over pros

■ The Wilson right-hander says he will attend Louisiana Junior College in North Carolina instead of signing with the Mets.

Mike Schaeffer admitted it was a tantalizing decision, one a lot tougher than a 3-2 pitch with the bases loaded. On one hand, the Wilson graduate could realize his dream of playing professional baseball immediately. On the other, he could attend college and try to keep improving his stock.

"It was definitely tempting," said Schaeffer, an 18-year-old right-handed pitcher who was drafted by the New York Mets in the 42nd round of baseball's first-year player draft last week. Tuesday, though, Schaeffer informed Mets scouts Joe Negro and Tom Taylor at a meeting at his home that he will attend Louisiana (N.C.) Junior College. "This is what I've always wanted to do," Schaeffer said of playing professionally. "But I think I'm making the right decision."

Before the game was postponed by a severe thunderstorm in the second with the Owls winning 1-0, he struck out five in two innings of one-hit ball.

Schaeffer plans to finish out his final year of Legion ball with West Lawn before en-

The Mets, who drafted Schaeffer last Wednesday and for-ERAs and 85 strikeouts in 55 1/2 innings for Berks I runner-up Friday, will retain Schaeffer's rights for the next 51 weeks, at which point he will make a final decision whether or not he will sign.

"In all honesty, I want Mike to do what's best for Mike," West Lawn coach Tony Matz III said. "He's been a big leader for us, and the fact that he's staying is great. I think he's making the right decision."

Bears stop Owls in sloppy game behind Hoffman

■ The Boyertown pitcher strikes out 13 as the Bears subdue West Lawn with eight runs over the final three innings.

By Darryl Grumling

Eagle/Times

When the Berks Legion schedule came out a few months back, the Boyertown-West Lawn game was one most league observers circled with a red pen.

The battles between the Bears and Owls usually feature plenty of high drama.

And with standout pitchers Nick Allen of Boyertown and Mike Schaefer of West

Owls 7 final years, the long-range forecast had to be for a prime-time mound duel.

Unfortunately, when Tuesday's showdown arrived, Allen and Schaefer were unavailable to pitch because of injuries. Schaefer, who played right field, is shut down with an arm injury, and Allen is out indefinitely with a broken foot.

The end result was a 14-7 Bears interdivision victory at Owls Field in a game in which the final score didn't do justice to either starter.

Boyertown's Drew Hoffman struck out 13 on a five-hitter and the Bears (13-1 Eastern Division, 23-4 overall) erased a one-run deficit by scoring eight runs over the final three innings to overcome the Owls (5-5 West, 9-7).

"All in all, it was an ugly game for both teams," said Boyertown coach Rick Matz, whose team retained its two-game lead in the Eastern Division. "Nine errors between these two teams is not typical Boyertown-West Lawn."

Still, the teams battled back and forth throughout in a game that featured five lead changes.

West Lawn took a 7-6 lead in the sixth inning when Jason Zeigler hit an RBI triple to deep center and scored on Greg Labe's groundout. But the Bears answered with two in the seventh, going up to stay on Hoffman's bloop single to right.

It was still 8-7 with two outs in the top of the eighth when Marc Paneplinto beat out an infield single — after the Owls dugout argued he should have been called out on a two-strike, check-swing — which wound up scoring two runs.

Boyertown then batted around and scored four runs in the ninth to seal it, in the process chasing Owls starter Ryan Pettit.

"The score was not indicative of how close this game was," West Lawn coach Tony Matz III said. "Ryan threw a hell of a game. He went out to pitch the seventh with the lead, and it should have been a one-run game going to the ninth.

"Getting seven runs off Drew isn't easy, especially when he strikes out 13 guys."

Boyertown's Todd Stapleton beats the throw at third base Tuesday night during the Bears' 14-7 victory.

Eagle/Times: Lisa Fernandez

Hoffman (4-0) helped himself by going 3-for-4 with two runs and two RBIs and Jon Kalejta was 3-for-5 in a 15-hit Boyertown attack. After Zeigler's sixth-inning triple, Hoffman allowed just one hit and struck out seven.

"Everybody knows they all have to step it up (in Allen's absence)," Hoffman said. "This just shows how complete of a team we have."

Todd Stapleton drove in three runs and Brian Ernst

Colon's homer lifts Birdsboro

■ Pete Colon hits a solo home run with one out in the ninth to give the Orioles a 5-4 win over West Lawn.

From our news staff

There must be something about the late innings that brings out the best in Pete Colon.

Colon stroked his second game-winning homer of the season Saturday, connecting with one out in the ninth, to give Birdsboro a key 5-4 Berks Legion League interdivision victory over West Lawn at Optimist Field.

Earlier this month, Colon hit a final-inning homer to beat Exeter. Saturday, Colon went 3-for-5 in a 15-hit attack for the Orioles (8-3 Eastern Division, 9-4).

West Lawn (5-4 West, 9-6) had tied it at 4-4 on Greg Labe's two-out solo homer in the eighth.

Mike Dietrich's run-scoring groundout put the Owls up 3-2 in the fifth before the Orioles answered with two in their half on Ty Brewer's sacrifice fly and Jim Everhart's RBI single.

Everhart went 3-for-4 for Birdsboro. Charlie Werner picked up the win with three innings in relief of starter Kevin Walbert.

Jon Zeigler went 3-for-4 and Kyle Frees struck out 11 for the Owls.

Gregg Post built leads of 10-0 and 11-1 before West Lawn got within 11-8 with a five-run seventh that was capped by Ben Reifsnnyder's RBI single.

But Randy Polanco came on to throw two shutout innings to save it for starter Leon Adams.

Marlins holding their own in league's wild, wild west

Since the Berks Legion League went to its current division format in 1996, West Lawn and Muhlenberg had dominated the Western Division.

Only Gregg Post, in 1998, was able to break the strong grip of the Owls and As, who have won two division titles apiece and finished in the top three in all five years and won a combined 75 percent of their games.

West Lawn has 90 league wins and Muhlenberg 75 during that span, with each team finishing no lower than third all five years.

This season, though, the pennant chase has been nothing less than wild in the West.

Six of the eight teams have been in first place at some point, and heading into Thursday's action, seven teams were within two games of first-place Schuylkill Valley.

The Owls and As have both come out of the blocks slow, with each team taking a losing record into Thursday's games. That has opened the door for several teams, including Gregg Post, Hamburg and Reading. The Marlins have been the division's biggest surprise, taking a 7-4 league record into Thursday's showdown with Muhlenberg. Schuylkill Valley has a real chance of finishing above .500 in league play for the first time since 1985, and qualifying for the league playoffs for the first time since 1987.

"I think you will have to win 13 or 14 (to win the division)," said first-year Schuylkill Valley coach Don Ottaviani. "It's so wide-open. I gave a speech to the kids last week, when we were tied for first with West Lawn.

"I told them they might want to look at the standings and turn them upside down, because we were only three games out of the cellar. You can go from the top to the middle in a hurry. Things can change dramatically."

■ Battin' Birdsboro. When Birdsboro opened the season by scoring four ninth-inning runs in an 11-7 victory at Oley, perhaps it was a good omen for the Orioles.

Through Wednesday, Birdsboro has won no less than five games in its final at-bat.

Pete Colon had game-ending homers in victories over Exeter (7-6) and West Lawn (5-4). Jim Everhart had the go-ahead RBI single in a two-run ninth that pulled out a 10-9 win at Kutztown, and Eric Everhart had a game-winning RBI single in the bottom of the 11th in Sunday's 7-6 victory over Gregg Post.

■ Eighteen is enough. Exeter coach Del Mintz was hoping for a big inning to break open a 5-2 lead midway through last Thursday's game at Wyomissing.

What he got was one of the most outrageous offensive outbursts in league history.

The Jays sent 22 batters to the plate in an 18-run inning on the way to a 23-4 rout of the Bison. Exeter took advantage of 13 hits, four walks, one hit batsman and one error.

Brian Roberts and Pete Jordan each made three plate appearances during the inning, getting two hits apiece.

■ Arms shortage: Three of the league's best pitchers — West Lawn's Mike Schaeffer, Boyertown's Nick Allen and Muhlenberg's Jeremy Kondisko — have been shut down for the time being.

Schaeffer, who suffered an injury to his throwing shoulder last week, had an MRI done Tuesday and will get the results back Monday. He played right field in Tuesday's 14-7 loss to Boyertown.

Allen, who suffered a broken right foot in a 23-10 rout of Birdsboro earlier this month, is scheduled to undergo surgery and could be out until the Berks playoffs.

Kondisko suffered a sprained ankle during Tuesday's game against Schuylkill Valley and is expected to miss a couple of weeks.

■ Scouting report. Conrad

Owls keep playoff hopes alive with win over Keys

■ West Lawn pounds out 18 hits to get a crucial 12-3 win over Gregg Post.

From our news staff

Kyle Frees threw eight strong innings and also went 3-for-5 with three runs as West Lawn kept its Berks Legion League playoff hopes alive with a 12-3 Western Division victory over Gregg Post Tuesday night at Owls Field.

Joey Blackburn and Mike Bruno each had two-run doubles; Mike Dietrich had an RBI double; Frees and Mike Schaefer each had RBI singles; and Jim Shipe squeezed home another run in an eight-run seventh that broke open a 4-1 lead.

ing. Schuykill Valley leads the West at 12-6.

West Lawn faces Muhlenberg tonight at Owls Field and Thursday at Laureldale in two games with huge playoff implications. Only the top three finishers in the West are assured automatic playoff bids.

Blackburn went 4-for-4 to lead an 18-hit West Lawn barrage. Shipe, a 15-year-old, went 3-for-4 with three RBIs and reached base five times. Frees (5-2) struck out nine, didn't issue a walk and allowed six hits.

Familiar faces might miss Berks playoff party

It has been 15 years since Muhlenberg last missed the Berks Legion League playoffs. And 16 years since West Lawn has been absent from the league postseason.

This summer, however, it's beginning to look more and more like either the As or Owls will be the odd team out when the league's 22-game regular season schedule comes to an end this weekend.

The As, the defending state champions, at least control their fate and could still wind up winning the division crown in the wild West.

First-place Schuylkill Valley took a 12-6 league record into Wednesday's action, with Muhlenberg (10-7) and Gregg Post (12-9) each 1 1/2 games back and West Lawn (10-9) 2 1/2 back.

The Owls, who have won four division titles in the past five years, likely need to sweep home-and-home games against Muhlenberg Wednesday and tonight, plus receive help. West Lawn closes with Kutztown Saturday.

"We didn't expect to be in this position at all," Owls coach Tony Matz III said. "We thought we'd be contending for the county title at this point. We fell we had two of the top pitchers in the league (Mike Schaefer and former coach Jerry Reiter) before Wednesday and

Berks Legion notes

Schaeffer, though, was shut down for a couple of weeks because of an elbow injury and had thrown only 11 league innings before Wednesday. With Eastern Division teams Kutztown and Exeter likely to gain the league's two wild card berths, it appears only the top three finishers in the West will qualify for the playoffs.

"Somewhere along the line it always seems like you have to go through a West Lawn or Muhlenberg if you want to get to the championship," Boyertown coach Rick Moatz said. "It's going to be weird if one of those teams isn't playing."

Owls edge A's to remain in playoff hunt

■ Mike Bruno and Mike Dietrich drive in the deciding runs as West Lawn turns back Muhlenberg in 10 innings.

From our news staff

Mike Bruno and Mike Dietrich drove in runs in the 10th inning to lift West Lawn past Muhlenberg 10-8 in a Berks League Western Division game Wednesday night at Laureldale.

Julian Pellegrini hit a grand slam off reliever Ben Reifsnnyder as the A's (10-8, 11-8) scored five runs in the ninth to tie it 8-8.

The Owls (11-9, 16-11) remained alive in the playoff race and for the Western Division title. They had scored a pair of runs in the seventh and eighth innings and one run in the ninth to take a 8-3 lead.

Mark Elliott relieved Reifsnnyder after the grand slam, but loaded the bases again. He allowed a pair of walks and an Andy Rozzi single.

Zac Schneider's grounder was booted, allowing Andy Zenyuch to score and make it 8-8. Rozzi tried to score from second, but Elliott threw him out at home to end the inning.

Bruno hit an RBI single to score Elliott in the 10th and Dietrich hit a sacrifice fly to score Travis Yocum.

Elliott allowed a hit and a walk in the 10th.

Bruno finished with two hits, two runs and one RBI and Mike Schaeffer had two hits and two RBIs for the Owls.

Nate Guers went 4-for-5 with a first-inning homer and Rozzi had two hits for Muhlenberg.
